ORDER

In response to Defendants’ motion for clarification and the Sixth Circuit’s order to show cause, the Court issues the following clarification of the record and Order. The Court granted Plaintiffs’ motion to remand. Administratively, that Order had the effect of transferring the case file back to State court. When Defendants indicated they intended to appeal the remand ruling based on 18 U.S.C. § 1447(d), the Court vacated the judgments to the extent necessary to recall the file to permit Defendants the opportunity to appeal. (ECF No. 24.) That action was neither a comment on the validity of the Court’s prior remand Order nor a vacatur of it. Instead, to the extent that the January 10, 2022 order “vacated” the judgments (ECF No. 24), it was a mechanical or administrative decision to enable Defendants to perfect their appellate rights. Nothing more.

To place this case in the proper posture for appeal, the Court REINSTATES the order remanding the consolidated cases to State court (ECF No. 20) and STAYS enforcement of that order pending the Sixth Circuit's review of the remand ruling.

SO ORDERED.
